GENERAL SAM HOUSTON .- Here is a stray but authentic leaf of history. It has strangely turned up to our view, and will no doubt refresh the fading recollections of many, as it has our own. Thirty-seven years ago - thirty-seven long, long years had Sam Houston attained to a proud distinction in the service of his country! Upon his body were the wounds inflicted by the foeman - fresh, "severe" wounds: and his commanding officer ordered him "back to the settlements," there to remain until he shall be "capable of entering on the recruiting service." He recovered from his wounds, and these many years have since passed-years in which his countrymen have generally enjoyed the blessings of peace. But such privilege has not been his. Adventure, toil, privation, and danger have surrounded his footsteps; and the remembrance of his name and deeds will live as long as shall endure the memorials of our nation.

There were few of our brave countrymen who would, for all the honors it could promise, have entered Texas as the chief of its stouthearted pioneers, and with weak forces, and without the sympathy of their fellow-citizens, have ventured into warfare with the cruel and treacherous rulers of that beautiful and benighted region. We well remember the general remark-"Their blood be upon their own heads!"-when the tidings came to us of the cold-blooded and cruel murder-for we cannot dignify it by the name of execution !- of his captive comrades. The "insurrection" became a revolution; the revolution proved successful: Texas became an independent republic, with her warrior chieftain as her first President. By him she was guided into the great brotherhood of republics; and he was chosen one of her first Senators. In this position, amid the most refined and polished citizens of the republicmen whose lives have been devoted to the study of the Constitution, the laws, the legislation, the politics of their country, he has sustained the part of a firm, liberal and sagacious representative of his State. Party ties have not here overruled his judgment, nor have sectional interests or predilections tempted him to forget that the WHOLE UNION demanded from him the tribute of his fealty. He had in his person made to it many sacrifices, and in his political career he well appreciated the sentiment of his State in avowing her determination to abide by the sacred bond of our national unity.

But we are led where we did not intend to stray. Gen. Houston has been named as a candidate for the Presidency. With that we have nothing to do. We may do better than elect him; we certainly can do worse. The long-forgotten order we designed to bring to light is suggestive of so many thoughts connected with the arduous and eventful career of the old chieftain, that we can with difficulty suppress the desire to recur to them. His history will yet be written; and however minutely may be recorded the eccentric vagaries of a life of indomitable resolution and herculean action, the annals of his country will derive lustre from its

" FORT WILLIAMS April 5 1814 "SIR: It is reported to me that you will not be capable of performing duty in the regiment for a considerable time, in consequence of the you received in the battle of Tohopeka of the 27th ult. In consequence of which I have thought proper to order you back to the settlements in Tennessee, there to remain until you are capable of entering on the uiting service, when you will report yourself to the officer commanding the principal recruiting rendezvous of the 39th infantry. That you have and will suffer much I am fully sensible; but I trust your pains will be alle-viated by the consoling reflection that your were received whilst gallantly fighting the battles of your country. That you may speedily recover is the ardent wish of your friend,

"LIEUT. HOUSTON."

VIRGINIA .- The Baltimore American of this morning contains a very interesting article on "the public stocks, credit, and revenues of Virginia," embodying a correspondence between James H. Carter, of Baltimore, and Governor Floyd. An able review of the subject from the National Intelligencer, and articles from the Daily News and New York Commercial Adverwith the following, as an appropriate conclusiou-the opinion of one of the most profound American financiers and statesmen, whose superior has never filled the position of Secretary of the Treasury.

"I have lately carefully examined the debt, credit and resources of the State of Virginia, and am aware of the amount of the coupon bonds which that State proposes to issue. My conviction is that for permanent investments, as well as for certain reimbursement of the principal, and punctual payment of the interest, these bonds are fully equal in value to any State stock in the market. Whether acting in an official capacity, or for third persons, I would deem the purchase of these bonds, considering the time they have to run, and the rate of interest, preferable to any other.
"The resources of Virginia are most ample, and rapidly increasing, and the people of the State are characterized by a high score of honor and of moral obligation. A. J. WALKER. and of moral obligation. it. J. W. Washington Coty, June 13, 1851."

ACCIDENT TO A CITIZEN OF GEORGETOWN .-The Reporter of Saturday says: "We regret to learn from the San Francisco papers that our former townsman, James King of William, was injured quite severely during the late disastrous fire. His property escaped entirely."

CRIMINAL COURT.—The only business transacted this morning was the trial of a couple of "impures" for assaulting a third. Poor wretches, as though their life, in its best phaze, was not morning made at building the marble frontmiserable enough!

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE

The Cambria arrived at Liverpool on the 8th. The cotton market is firmer, with a fair demand at previous rates.

All kinds of breadstuffs have advanced since the Niagara sailed. Wheat has advanced 1d.@ 2d., and flour 6d.@9d. The quotations are, Ohio, 19s. 6d. @20s. 6d.; Philadelphia and Baltimore, 20s. 6d.@21s. Corn is 6d. dearer, with large sales: yellow, 30s.@31s. 6d.; white, 32s.@33s. Beans are a shilling higher. Provisions are more active, and prices unchanged. Money is steady. The bullion in the bank has increased over £37,000. Consols closed at 977 @98. American securities are inactive and unchanged.

The accounts from the manufacturing districts were more favorable.

The committee on Indian steam navigation has reported against the Panama and in favor of the Cape of Good Hope route.

Parliament has adjourned for the Whitsun tide holidays. The visiters at the great Exhibition average nearly 50,000 daily, at a shilling per ticket.

The Dublin and Galway railroad will be pened on the 1st of August.

The crops throughout England and Ireland promise an abundant harvest, though the sean is backward. The President of France is about to make another tour through the Provinces, where his popularity is on the increase. The accounts from Paris of the state of trade are satisfactory. It is reported that Saldanha is becoming unpopular with the army of Portugal. The French fleet had arrived in the Tagus. A new levy of twenty-five thousand troops was about being made to enable the Government of Spain to interfere in the affairs of Portugal.

The Russian troops had completely evacuated the Danubian Provinces of Turkey. STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES .- We learn from El Clamor Publico that three thousand women in Madrid, who are engaged in the manufacture of cigars, have struck for higher wages. They formed quite an army of insurgents, and three up barricades to impede the municipal guard, who were sent to bring them to order. Finally they were compelled to return to their labor not without complaining bitterly, however, of the great reduction of wages. The most skilful used to receive eight reals per day, [a real is equal to ten cents,] but two and a half reals is the utmost they can make under the new arrangement.—N. Y. Com. Adv. To what are we tending? Behold the spirit of the age! Has law, has order, has justice no power to constrain the presumption of poor and laborious women? Have they no gratitude for the protection and privileges they receive? Iniquitous "insurgents!" The most skilful among them capable of earning twenty-five cents a day, and yet are they not satisfied! Why did not the "municipal guard" fire upon them at once? The act would have been worthy of them. They did well to compel them to return to their labor. It was important that there should be no interruption to the profits of their employers, nor to the luxurious puffing of the "wealthy curled darlings" for whose use they twist the tobacco leaves. Poor pale girls! to be sure their work is unhealthy, and their recompense small; but they are the common people, whose welfare has not been bargained for in any of the contracts made by kings and aristocrats for the government of nations. But we would like to see "municipal guard" compelling a party of Yankee girls to return to labor at prices below what they deem equitable. There is no mistake about it-there is a wide difference in some things between the old and the new world!

THE WARRENTON (VA.) REPUBLICAN.-Dr. J. S. Bell has purchased this establishment. He this Union with horror-from its contemplation has for some time contributed to its editorial my mind shrinks back appalled, dismayed; and columns. Dr. B. is a ripe scholar and a pleasant writer, and appears ambitious to both amuse and instruct his readers. That he can be emi- I see everything beautiful and lovely marred nently successful, in both or either, there is little doubt; but we hope he will not be tempted too far into the former. That sin that doth most easily beset us should be carefully guarded. A newspaper full of long articles epitomized is the most difficult to produce, elicits the least praise for its editor, yet is ever the most acceptable to the reader. A bird that can soar aloft on unfailing pinions cannot well brook the monotony of the dull earth in its circumscribed prospect; but "to this complexion we must come at last." He who conducts an acceptable newspaper must ever repeat to himself, "My paper and my readers are all: my correspondents and I are nothing!"

But whom are we lecturing? "I said an elder soldier, not a better."

THE MORMONS.-If the late reports we read of this people are true, a war of scatterment, tiser, are also embraced in this paper, together if not extermination, may yet be waged against them by the United States. Their numbers are greatly increasing, chiefly from Europe; and under the name of a peculiar religion they appear to be practising the worst of vices among themselves, as well as dishonesty and violence toward others. Their government is not only a hierarchy, and as such an incongruity in our political system, but it is an imperium in imperio, in such sense as will necessarily lead to discord and strife. Either serious evils must doubtful the issue, until there appeared sudbefal them, or their reformers must take timely action in the work of delivering them from the sins that we are told beset them.

> CALIFORNIA MAILS .- The steamer Cherokee, whose arrival at New York on Saturday morning from Havana we announced that afternoon, under our telegraphic head, brings the California mails to May 15th. She has three hundred passengers, most of whom are from California. The steamer Falcon arrived at Havana from Chagres, on the 15th, with five hundred passengers. There were no American vessels of war at Havana when the Cherokee sailed. The town is perfectly quiet. The sudden departure of the Intendente to the States caused a little excitement and much regret.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION OF Onto has been adopted by a large majority of the popular vote.

BROWN'S HOTEL .-- A commencement was this The rear and partition walls progress finely.

Kossuth.-It is stated in the recent news The steamship Arctic arrived at New York from Europe that another company of eightyyesterday afternoon in eleven days from Liverpool, with ninety-seven passengers. She experienced fresh westerly winds during the whole (Eng.) from Constantinople, and that they con-(Eng.) from Constantinople, and that they con-template proceeding to the United States. Kossuth was last seen by them at Kutavah, on the 6th ultimo. His wife and child were with him, and about twenty-five Hungarians, who are still prisoners. The Turks promise him his liberty in September. We hope they may keep their promise. Kossuth is, we believe, not more than fifty years of age-young enough to assimilate with our people, to attain to usefulness and distinction among us, and to enjoy in the bosom of his family many years of tranquillity and happiness. He merits of mankind something better than a prison, and the cause of human freedom may yet be promoted through his aid.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE. -On Saturday afternoon last C. W. Boteler sold at auction, lot No. 49, in square 143, on Eighteenth street west, between E and F, fronting fifty-six feet on Eighteenth street, and running back one hundred and nine feet. It was bought by J. H. McBlair, at thirteen cents per foot.

On the same afternoon four fine lots, of 20 cres each, about three miles from the Centre Market, between the 7th street turnpike and Piney Branch road, were sold by Dyer and Mc-Guire, at $80 per acre, to J. C. McGuire.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE .- We learn that this gentleman, accompanied by his family, will leave this city in the cars to-morrow for Capon Springs, in Virginia, and that he will also be acompanied by Charles Lanman, Esq.

PRESENTATION OF A CANE.

BALTIMORE, June 18, 1851. To R. W. LATHAM, Esq. - Dear Sir: Many of your friends in Baltimore, among whom we are numbered, have for some time desired to express to you, by some token, the confidence and esteem we entertain for you; and now beg your acceptance of a cane, valuable only as a memorial of our friendship and regard.

For several years you resided amongst us, and discharged with fidelity all your duties as a citizen and merchant; and since your removal to Washington, we have been gratified to learn that your character and conduct have been appreciated there.

It is, however, chiefly to express, on this occasion, our approval of your efforts and senti-ments in behalf of the Union of the States, which prompts us now to tender you this evif our approbation, for you have both by your liberality and pen endeavored for some time to promote that great political blessing. With sincere esteem, we are your friends and bedient servants.

Z. Collins Lee, Geo. E. Sangston, Alexander D. Kelly, M. O'Brien, George W. Grafflin, Wm. Woodward, Wm. D. Townsend, Wm. A. Loney, Vm. H. Ryan, Francis D. Dungan, Thomas Watkins, George F. R. Waesche.

Washington, June 20. To Mesers. Z. Collins, George E. Sangston, Alexander D. Kelly, &c. GENTLEMEN: With feelings of the warmes gratitude I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind favor of the 18th instant, accompanied by a most beautiful and substan-tial Walking-Cane, as evidence of your regard for me, and the high estimation in which you hold my humble efforts in behalf of the Union.

It affords me, gentlemen, unfeigned pleasure to assure you that my admiration of this glo rious Union, and my firm and unwavering attschment to those who are ever ready, with their "lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor," to defend it until the last beacon-light of liberty shall be extinguished, and the last entinel upon the watch-tower of freedom shal expire, has grown with my growth, strengthened with my strength, and increased with my years.

I most sincerely trust that around the names and memory of those gallant and patriotic spirits, who led the Union army to victory and to triumph, may be gathered, in clusters of ample profusion, all the honors that a grateful nation can confer; and may those editors of public journals throughout the land, who daily disgorged the blazing magazines into the ranks of the enemy, never want for that liberal patronage which it is in the power of this Government to bestow. I look upon a dissolution of re my astonish in magnitude, and far more numerous those contained in the fabled Pandora's Box. I see everything green and prosperous wither and decay. I see grim-visaged war "yoking the red Dragons of his fiery Chariot" preparatory to his desolating march. I see tyranny and despotism, rife and rampant, unmolested, stalk around the world. I see liberty and freedom leave the earth, and upon viewless winds" return to Heaven again; and he who expects to find them here, as much disappointed as he who seeks for mellow grapes beneath the icy pole, or blooming roses on the cheek of death, or substance in a land of fleeting shades.

The man who would directly or indirectly under any pretence whatever, dissolve this Union and uproot our present organization, in my humble judgment, is the veriest monster that walks upon the face of this green earth. Tophet, in its volcanic eruptions, never threw up upon the surface a fouler spirit than that of disunion; it should be kicked out at the back door of public contempt, and rolled into the filthy gutter of universal detestation and abhorrence. It would be well for the disunionist if his name could be forgotten-blotted out from the recollection of his fellow mortals, and sunk into oblivion's dark profound. But this is a privilege which he has denied himself, having, with his piratical hands, placed the mark of Cain upon his forehead, and entwined around his brow evidences of unfading infamy.

It cannot be denied that our Union has been in danger, in imminent peril, "hair hung and breeze shaken" o'er the gulf of dissolution Fierce was the contest, long the struggle, and denly upon the stage President Fillmore, with his unrivaled Cabinet, who, with skilful hands and spirits undaunted, hoisted the floodgates of their influence, and came down with a force as irresistible as the Falls of Niagara, the reveberation of whose thundering artillery was heard throughout the land, scattering to the four winds of Heaven the army of the disunionists.

We have great cause for congratulation, and our hearts should overflow with gratitude to the Author of every "good and perfect gift," that our country is now safe, and that here, beneath the wide-spreading branches of the Tree of Liberty, we may dwell secure.

And now, gentlemen, in conclusion, permit me to say, that as I lean my wearied frame upon the substantial token of your high regard, shall hold in grateful remembrance the patriots who presented it, wishing that in this life prosperity and happiness in rich abundance may be your constant companions, and that in the life to come your inheritance may be unfading, where from the stream of immortality you may drink, and be forever happy and for-

Your sincere friend and obedient servant. B. W. LATHAM.

IMPORTANT TO GROCERS AND FAMILIES .- The advertisement of Messrs. Morton & Wilson, of at four o'clock this afternoon. Georgetown, deserves attention; as also does that of Messrs. Howell & Shoemaker. Georgetown is improving upon her old reputation as a good market for groceries. Our friends in Montgomery, Fairfax, Loudoun, and other adjacent counties, should remember this before straying further in search of good commodities.

A NEW DRUG AND CHEMICAL STORE .- In referring to the advertisement of DR. WOODRUFF. we would take occasion to say that the experience of each day of our lives admonishes us of the necessity of attaching the utmost importance to this department of business, and of confiding in none who enter upon it but such as possess attainments, experience, and skill adequate to its responsibilities. Dr. Woodruff comes among Louisville Courier. us prepared to assume a position among the foremost in his calling, and as such is commended to the public confidence and patronage.

A SALUTARY LAW .- The following section of the new constitution of Ohio has been submitted to the people to be voted upon separately, and has probably been adopted:

"No license to traffic in intoxicating liquors shall hereafter be granted in this State, but the General Assembly may, by law, provide against evils resulting therefrom."

NEW MINERALS DISCOVERED IN ALLEGHANY COUNTY, MD .- The Civilian of Saturday says: "Within the last ten days both lead and plumbago have been discovered in this county. Both are remarkably pure, as we can testify from specimens in our possession; but the ex-tent of the deposites has not as yet transpired, as it remains a secret with the discoverer. "It is here worthy of remark, that a hitherto unknown seam of very pure hematite iron ore has been found near the surface, on the socalled 'Preston' or 'Pompey Smash' tract o land, belonging to the Astor and Washington Coal Companies. It varies in thickness from two feet six inches to three feet. About a thousand tons mined on an adjoining lot, the mineral right of which is owned by Messrs. Ford, Armstrong, and Pearcy, readify commands two dollars and fifty cents per ton, delivered on the spot. The cost of mining does not exceed fifty cents per ton.

"The remarkable uniformity and fidelity of the stratification of this region induce the belief that similar deposites of lead, plumbago, and iron exist in all the coal lands of the basin. Truly, the mineral wealth of the Cumberland coal-field is as yet but imperfectly known!"

SOLDIERS' WIVES.—A judge of probate in Minnesota Territory, to whom a United States soldier at Fort Snelling recently made application for a discharge, on the ground that he could not find suitable quarters at the fort for his wife, granted the discharge, and held that if the Government enlist a husband, it must provide suitable accommodations for the wife : also, that every enlisted soldier may have a wife

DOORKEEPER. - We learn that Z. M. McKnew. sq., of Washington, is a candidate for the office of Doorkeeper of the next House of Representatives. Mr. McKnew is recommended by thirty-odd members of Congress, and, in the language of Gen. Cass, is "a man of excellent siness habits, and of the best moral character. and as sound a Democrat and as deserving the confidence of the party as any other man in the Union."-Balt. Argus.

PROPHETIC MUSK-RATS. - The Burlington (Iowa) Hawkeye says it is reported that the musk-rats in the Mississippi bottom, in anticipation of the late flood, constructed their houses several feet higher than usual. Their mounds are an astonishment to all who behold them.

DIFFICULT SURGICAL OPERATION. - An exceedingly difficult and rare surgical operation was performed yesterday at the hospital, by Dr. B. I. Raphael. The subject was a female, and one half of her nose had been destroyed by ulceration. Dr. B. performed the Rhinoplastic operation in her case with great facility and dextentive and with the heavy president. terity, and with the best possible success. A portion of the skin was transferred from the cheek, and the lady will soon be able to boast of a nose as good as new.

We are informed by a medical friend that this is the first operation of the kind ever per-formed in Louisville, and that Dr. Raphael acted throughout with the skill and nerve of a veteran. He is a most accomplished physician, and Dr. R. has won no little reputation from this handsome and successful achievement.—

CAPTURE OF A SEA-COW .- Messrs. Clark and Burnham lately succeeded in capturing a sea-cow near Juniper Inlet, Florida. The animal was caught in a net, was a male, and nine feet three inches in length. They succeeded in taking it alive, and shipped it to Charleston for exhibition. It was very wild when first captured, but soon became quite tame, and ate freely of grass, &c. Its tail is in the shape of a fan, and is two feet five inches broad. It has no hind feet; its fore feet are similar to those human hand, but no claws. Its mouth and nose resemble those of a cow; it has teeth on the lower jaw, but not one on the upper. A female was also taken, but it was so large, and, becoming entangled in the net, made such desperate exertions to escape, that the captors were compelled to shoot it. They preserved the skin, however, which was fifteen feet long. [Living Age.
